PhoneTree to attend National Association of Church Business Administration® (NACBA®) 2009 Annual Conference

WINSTON-SALEM, NC — PhoneTree will be attending the NACBA's 2009 Annual Conference, themed "Riding the Ministry Wave," this July 17-21 in Long Beach, CA.

"We're excited to be a part of this event and proud to be a member of the NACBA," says PhoneTree President and CEO, AJ DiBianca. "This show is always a great opportunity to show churches how PhoneTree products can make their lives easier, and to connect with existing PhoneTree customers and partners."

PhoneTree's booth number at the event is 434.

About the NACBA: The National Association of Church Business Administration is an inter-denominational, professional, Christian organization which exists to serve the church by promoting the highest level of professional competence in individuals serving Christ through administration in local churches. For more information, visit the NACBA website at www.nacba.net

About PhoneTree for Faith-based Organizations: For years, churches all over the country have been using PhoneTree with great success, for everything from choir practice reminders and funeral notifications, to weather-related schedule changes, prayer chains, capital campaigns, and much, much more. Whether a church has a membership of 300 or 30,000, A PhoneTree Congregational Messaging system can relieve members and staff from the burden of keeping everyone informed while at the same time encouraging involvement with a personal touch. Developed in and for the church, PhoneTree Congregational Messaging Systems have been helping churches since 1989.
